

NATIONAL BUREAU OF ECONOMIC RESEARCH, INC.

Cohort Studies Meeting

Dora Costa, Organizer

April 15-16, 2016

UCLA
Los Angeles, California

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Friday, April 15

California Center for Population Research, Public Affairs 4240

- 8:30 am Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 am Welcome and Introductions
- 9:15 am Diane Lauderdale, University of Chicago
Sleep at Young and at Older Ages
- 10:10 am Caleb Finch, University of Southern California
Air Pollution in Brain Development and Aging of Urban Cohorts
- 11:05 am Break
- 11:25 am Pietro Biroli, University of Zurich
Genetic and Economic Interaction in the Formation of Health: The Case of Obesity
- 11:55 am Lunch
- 12:55 pm Marcella Alsan, Stanford University and NBER
Marianne Wanamaker, University of Tennessee and NBER
Tuskegee and the Health of Black Men
- 1:25 pm Günther Fink, Harvard University
Atheendar Venkataramani, Massachusetts General Hospital
Arianna Zanolini, University of Chicago
Do it Well or Not at All? Malaria Control and Child Development in Zambia

- 1:55 pm Achyuta Adhvaryu, University of Michigan
Teresa Molina, University of Southern California
Anant Nyshadham, University of Southern California
Jorge Tamayo, Central Bank of Colombia
Helping Children Catch Up: Early Life Shocks and the Progresa Experiment
- 2:25 pm Break
- 2:45 pm Sok Chul Hong, Sogang University
The Socioeconomic Gradient in the Inheritance of Longevity: A Study of American Genealogies
- 3:15 pm Adrian Adermon, Uppsala University
Mikael Lindahl, Uppsala University
Mårten Palme, Stockholm School of Economics
Dynastic Human Capital, Inequality and Intergenerational Mobility
- 3:45 pm Break
- 4:05 pm Leah Platt Boustan, University of California at Los Angeles and NBER
Katherine Eriksson, University of California at Davis and NBER
Philipp Ager, University of Southern Denmark
The Effect of Fathers' Wealth on Sons' Adult Outcomes in the Nineteenth Century: Evidence from the Civil War
- 4:35 pm Martha Bailey, University of Michigan and NBER
Longitudinal, Intergenerational Family Electronic Microdata (LIFE-M) Project
- 5:05 pm Adjourn

Saturday, April 16

Bunche Hall 9383

- 8:30 am Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 am Daniel Belsky, Duke University
Avshalom Caspi, Duke University
Terrie Moffitt, Duke University
Richie Poulton, University of Otago
The Genetics of Success: How SNPs Associated with Educational Attainment Shape the Course of Lives

- 9:55 am Andrew Noymer, University of California at Irvine
Natalie Rivadeneira, Emory University
“You’ve Come a Long Way, Baby”: The Convergence in Age Patterns of Lung Cancer Mortality by Sex, United States, 1959–2013
- 10:25 am Break
- 10:45 am Steven Lehrer, Queen's University and NBER
Hans-Martin von Gaudecker, Bonn University
Mårten Palme, Stockholm School of Economics
Gender Differences in Health Sector Utilization: New Evidence from Exploring Variation across Cohorts and the Lifecycle in Sweden
- 11:15 am Itzik Fadlon, Harvard University and NBER
Torben Heien Nielsen, University of Copenhagen
The Effects of Adverse Health and Mortality Shocks on Spousal Health and Health-Care Utilization
- 11:45 am Break
- 12:05 pm Victor Lavy, University of Warwick and NBER
Analia Schlosser, Tel Aviv University
Adi Shani, Hebrew University
Out of Africa: Human Capital Consequences of In Utero Conditions
- 12:35 pm Andreas Georgiadis, University of Oxford
The Sooner the Better But It's Never Too Late: The Impact of Child Growth At Different Periods of Early Life on Cognitive Development
- 1:05 pm Lunch
- 2:05 pm Adjourn